

SkillsFuture Advice Workshops Frequently Asked Questions

General

How are the workshops conducted?

The SkillsFuture Advice workshop comprises educational, interactive and reflective activities to help you understand the importance of planning for career and skills upgrading. The workshop will also share what SkillsFuture is about and how to use the various resources and tools for career planning and skills upgrading.

What is the duration of a workshop?

The SkillsFuture Advice workshop is about 1.5 hours.

Is there a workshop fee?

There is no fee payable for the SkillsFuture Advice workshops.

What languages are the workshops conducted in?

The SkillsFuture Advice workshop is available in English, Chinese, Malay and Tamil.

Is there any certificate of completion or monetary incentive for me/my company upon completing the workshop?

The objective of the SkillsFuture Advice workshop is to enable enterprises and their workforce to better understand the government's initiatives, as well as resources that support an individual's learning and development needs. Therefore, there is no certification or monetary incentives upon completion of the free workshop.

Eligibility

Is there a minimum class size for the workshops?

To arrange for an exclusive SkillsFuture Advice workshop for your workforce, there is a minimum class size of 20 attendees. Alternatively, you could encourage your employees to register for one of the public sessions at <http://go.gov.sg/im-keen>.

Is the workshop only open to Singaporean workforce and Singapore-based companies? Can foreign companies sign up for the workshop?

The SkillsFuture Advice workshops are catered for Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents. Nonetheless, organisations with staff profiles of mixed nationalities can contact us at PED@ssg.gov.sg for further discussion.

Registration

How do companies request for the workshops to be organised for their workforce?

To sign up for the workshop, please indicate your interest by emailing us at PED@ssg.gov.sg and we will contact you for a further discussion.

Is there a limit on the number of workshops that can be organised for each company?

No, there is no limit for each company. Please note that to arrange for an exclusive SkillsFuture Advice workshop for your workforce, there is a minimum class size of 20 attendees.